

Instructions: Select the best answer for all ten questions on this page, and then select Submit to view your score. You must have a minimum score of 80% in order to complete this course. Good luck!

1. True or False? Symptoms commonly seen after a TBI can also be seen in other disorders.
  - A. True
  - B. False

2. TBI severity is assessed by:
  - A. Size and number of intracranial lesions on initial CT scan
  - B. Initial alteration or loss of consciousness duration
  - C. Mechanism of injury
  - D. Number of symptoms acutely

3. Which of the following statements is true regarding the types of information that may be found in C-files? Select all that apply.
  - A. Documentation of claimed condition to date
  - B. The amount of time the claim has been in process
  - C. Action such as a previous denial of the claim
  - D. Records of treatment outside of or within the VA system
  - E. All statements are True
  - F. All statements are False

4. Since individuals with TBI may have difficulty organizing and communicating their symptoms without prompting, it is important to:
  - A. Rule-out TBI of any severity
  - B. Document common initial and long-term symptoms
  - C. Ask about and document all problems
  - D. Document psychological causes for the symptoms

5. If the Veteran or Servicemember complains of any subjective symptoms or residual attributes you should ask about the:
  - A. Frequency
  - B. Severity
  - C. Duration of their symptoms or conditions
  - D. Impact on daily functioning
  - E. All the above
  - F. None of the above

6. Long-term balance deficits following mTBI can be best described as:
  - A. Atypical
  - B. Unable to be measured by physical examination
  - C. Best assessed by retropulsion testing
  - D. A marker of initial injury severity

7. Simple, posterior headaches that begin 6 months after a clearly diagnosed mild TBI are:
  - A. Likely to be related to this TBI
  - B. Caused by intermittent muscular spasm of the strap musculature
  - C. Not causally linked to this TBI
  - D. A common precursor to cluster migraine headaches

8. True or False? Cognitive screening evaluations are not specific as to the cause of TBI, depression, anxiety, sleep disorder, pain disorder, or other functional deficits.
  - A. True
  - B. False

9. Symptoms of behavioral changes related to a TBI are typically first manifested if causally related:
  - A. In 3 to 5 days post-injury
  - B. In 1 to 2 weeks post-injury
  - C. In 2 to 4 weeks post-injury
  - D. In 4 to 6 weeks post-injury

10. Mental competency, for VA benefits purposes, refers only to the ability of the Veteran or Servicemember to manage:
  - A. VA benefit payments in his or her own best interest.
  - B. Personal health issues in his or her own best interest.
  - C. Personal and social relationships in his or her own best interest.
  - D. Personal safety and emergency maintenance in his or her own best interest.